A Newsletter from Homes for Our Troops | www.homesforourtroops.org | SUMMER 2010

A Letter from Founder & President John S. Gonsalves

DEAR SUPPORTER:

Since 2004, Homes for Our Troops supporters from all walks of life have “paid it forward” by giving the gift of freedom and independence to those who have given it to them. As we work toward accomplishing our goals for Year 6, we continue to be amazed and grateful for our ever-growing Support Communities – the key to our success.

Our ongoing HFOT Champion Spotlight column gives us a chance to offer our sincere appreciation to just a few of our supporters with each newsletter issue. Some champions however, break the mold of what it means to be a power of example —what it means to pay it forward—what it means to be a local hero. The ultimate “case in point” comes from within our HFOT Family of Veterans, which makes the example of our own SSG Robert Canine an inspiration for us all.

When SSG Robert Canine learned that he would receive a specially adapted home from Homes for Our Troops at no cost to him, his first emotion was gratitude. His second? Selflessness, which has always been Canine’s fundamental instinct: take care of my family, take care of my comrades.

Within days, Canine was sharing the story with other veteran amputees at Walter Reed Army Medical Center who he thought would benefit from a specially adapted home. Within weeks, he created a public service video to show how wider hallways, roll-in showers, and roll-under stove-tops and sinks provide the gift of freedom and independence by removing mobility restrictions. By December 2009, he had announced his goal to raise and donate $100,000 to Homes for Our Troops to Pay it Forward! build a specially adapted home for another severely injured veteran.

Canine’s goal for the most compelling Pay It Forward example we’ve ever seen was crystal clear: use the funds I raise for another specially adapted home, not my home. “I decided to save $100 a month for 10 months to make a $1000 contribution to HFOT. If I could inspire 99 other people to do the same or inspire 900 people to donate $100, I would reach my goal of $100,000 raised by October 1, 2010.”

And inspire he did. On June 8, 2010 – 4 months ahead of schedule – Robert reached his $100,000 fundraising goal. Using a HFOT Personal Fundraising page, Robert’s message to friends and family was simple and uniquely heartfelt: “help me give to those who gave to us.” The result? Good old fashioned word-of-mouth inspired donations from individuals, youth organizations, schools, and corporations as well as fundraising events such as “Run for Robert” and “Coins for Caring.”

“Help me give to those who gave to us.”

Ever the selfless hero, he attributes success to others saying, “People ask me how I raised the $100,000. I tell them I didn’t, my friends and family did. All I did was ask for their support, and they came through in a big way. Not just for me, but for an injured soldier they may never meet.” As Robert continues to applaud his Support Community for their help and successes – we at Homes for Our Troops continue to applaud him.

John S. Gonsalves

THANK YOU

to everyone who donated, raised funds for, and volunteered for SSG Canine’s home!

HFOT CHAMPION SPOTLIGHT

"Jelly Jo"

Joan Eskelinen, "Jelly Jo" as she is now known, is the passion and muscle behind Log Cabin Love. Joan has been on a jelly and jam crusade for the past 3 years and has made over 1,000 jars in this last year alone. All supplies are grown locally, the sugar is donated and she pays for the jars out of her own pocket. Her commitment to raising money for our injured soldiers is inspiring. Her fourth year of support begins in the fall, when the local grapes, strawberries, & rhubarb are ready for picking!

Born and raised at the end of Log Cabin Drive in Walled Lake, Michigan, Joan and her husband Bill still reside in the same log cabin. Joan has raised a sweet $17,000 selling her jams and jellies and donated 100% to HFOT! Thank you "Jelly Jo" for your support!

Buracker Construction, LLC

Congratulations to Dave and Martha Buracker, owners of Buracker Construction in Bentonville, VA, awarded the "2010 business of the year" by the Front Royal-Warren County Chamber of Commerce. Describing their work in helping to construct a home for SSG Arthur "Bunky" Woods, Martha noted, "The Homes for Our Troops house for SSG Woods that we have volunteered to be the General Contractor for has been the single most rewarding volunteer project we have ever done. We may have spearheaded the project, but it has been the whole Front Royal/Warren County community that has come together to make this a reality."

Thank you to the Front Royal/Warren County community and Buracker Construction!

Mastic Home Exteriors on Paying It Forward:

"Our Red, White & Home promotion will donate more than $100,000 in cash, volunteers, and product donations to Homes for Our Troops in 2010. With the support of Mastic distributors and contractors, we're paying it forward by helping to build more than 20 homes for severely injured veterans with Mastic Home Exteriors low-maintenance siding and trim. As leaders in our industry, we hope that our example encourages others to get behind an organization that provides such a vital and needed service to our severely injured veterans."

Thank you Mastic Home Exteriors!

Spotlight: Volunteer Day

On Volunteer Day, the Support Community cleans and landscapes a specially adapted home to perfection. To prepare for CPL Joshua Lindsey's Key Ceremony in Cumming, GA on June 26, 2010, Hilbert's Heroes demonstrated the power of a group effort! Staffed by Atlanta's Hilbert Law Firm, Hilbert's Heroes supports a charity each month and gets clients, colleagues, friends and family involved too! We join CPL Lindsey in thanking Hilbert's Heroes for coordinating landscaping materials donations for this home and rolling up their sleeves on Volunteer Day to install the results!

SPOTLIGHT:

SSG Dwayne Cole's Key Ceremony

On June 19, 2010, Homes for Our Troops and General Contractor Stephen Thomas Homes were proud to present SSG Dwayne A. Cole and his wife, Shontel, with the key to their new specially adapted home in Henrico, Virginia. The Coles can now rebuild their lives in a home that is barrier-free.

From Stephen Thomas Homes website:
 "We were looking for just this type of community project so that we could 'give back'. We proudly volunteered to be the general contractor for this home, and are grateful for this tremendous opportunity to say 'Thank You!' to someone who has made more sacrifices for his fellow men and women than most of us will ever know."
