

The Virginia Association of REALTORS is the business advocate for real estate professionals and property rights in the state of Virginia, representing 30,000 members who are engaged in all phases of real estate brokerage, management, development and appraisal. Our mission is to enhance our membership's ability to achieve business success and to protect access to homeownership and quality housing for all Virginians.