My name is Bryant Jacobs and on Dec. 4th 2004 my life changed forever. While serving with the 65th ENG BN in Iraq, my convoy was hit by a roadside bomb. Twenty-two months and over thirty surgeries later, I'm still here.

Being a disabled vet can be tough at times. Homes For Our Troops is a nonprofit organization that goes above and beyond the call of duty to make a disabled vets life significantly easier. They build specially adapted homes for disabled veterans.

Because my new home was built with my disabilities in mind, I no longer worry about falling in the shower or tripping over carpet. My wood flooring makes my home wheelchair accessible for really bad days.

Because of how much Homes For Our Troops has enriched my life, my goal is to give back. I am hosting a golf tournament to help support this amazing organization. With your donation, another severely wounded veteran will get the gift of a new adapted home. I'm hoping that you will help support me in my efforts to help others that need the support of Homes For Our Troops.

Sincerely,
Bryant Jacobs
